

Need More Space – The Facts

Need More Space is the leading provider of self-storage in Ireland since 1989. We offer our customers flexible, affordable and secure storage space in a clean and safe environment. Our self-storage units provide customers with private rooms which are secure, clean and dry, for the storage of almost all materials including furniture, business stock, excess stock and office equipment.

With Need More Space customers are guaranteed the most appropriate environment for the storage of their materials. We provide both long term and short term storage tailored to meet your requirements. Need More Space have three locations in Dublin including; Deansgrange, Kylemore Road and Santry.

Need More Space provide the following services:

- Professional, friendly service
- Seven day a week access
- Packaging supplies

All Need More Space facilities have following features:

- State-of-the-art security system with alarms
- Closed circuit television surveillance
- 24-hour time lapsed video surveillance recording
- Individual private storage rooms